Dec 2017 - Jan 2018

THE CAROL GOES FROM DOOR TO DOOR

The carol goes from door to door,
A gift of God for rich & poor,
A song come down from his far throne,
A seed of light in darkness sown.

The carol brings, from door to door,
News of the lamb whom shepherds saw,
Held in a slumber still & deep,
Within a manger laid to sleep.

From God that night this song went forth:
Both west & east, both south & north,
Until our cold & clouded shore
First heard the name our hearts adore.

The carol goes from door to door,
Like Joseph once, so long before,
Soft through the night it makes its way,
Seeking some place for Christ to stay.

So clear and high the song rings on
When those who sing are passed and gone:
So from this world we too must pass
When God shall call us home at last.

With love,
Ewan

THE FURNACE MOIST WITH DEW

WAS THE IMAGE AND THE FIGURE

OF A WONDER PAST NATURE;

FOR IT DID NOT BURN THOSE IT HAD RECEIVED;

EVEN AS THE FIRE OF THE GODHEAD

DID NOT CONSUME THE VIRGIN'S WOMB
INTO WHICH IT HAS DESCENDED.

THEREFORE IN PRAISE LET US SING:

LET ALL CREATION BLESS THE LORD,

AND HIGHLY EXALT HIM TO ALL THE AGES.

A good friend of our church and occasional attender of services has just started a monthly standing order to transfer a regular sum to support us. This is very kind, and most welcome, and reminds me that it is high time to suggest this to others!

Six of us do this at the moment (four of these are church friends rather than members and their concern for us is heart-warming). If you would like to join this number please ask me for a standing order form (or email me at gaynor@eandghumphreys.plus.com and I can email it to you).

We still need, and use well, every scrap of funding we receive from the congregation and visitors, and people who hire our space. If you are a regular giver (on any scale) and a UK taxpayer and you would like a PIN to write on your offering envelope (just three digits instead of having to write in your name and details every time), do let me know. With basic rate tax at 20% every claim we can make under Gift Aid adds 25% to the value of your offering.

Christmas

This being the time of year that most of us receive more post than at any other time (since real Christmas cards don't seem to have gone out of fashion, on the whole) can I remind you that there is a box in the church vestibule for used postage stamps. We send them to the Baptist Union's Home Mission who make lots of money from selling stamps and coins. Just tear or cut them from envelopes, with a half inch margin, please. Odd foreign coins can be put to good use too.

With love and good wishes,
especially for Christmas
and the New Year,

Gaynor

SECRETARY'S REPORT

Dear friends,

I hope you all had a good Summer.

Our Church family continues to grow.

On 2nd September, we were delighted to welcome a new Church Member, Beauty Kunene. We also have several new regular members of the congregation, some of whom have accepted our invitation to attend the Church Meeting and learn more about our activities and volunteered their help.

On 3rd September, we commenced our month long harvest celebration with a well-attended (and supplied!) pot luck lunch after the service. Throughout September, Ewan's sermons adopted a harvest theme and we collected food and clothing for refugees. Celebrations culminated in a special harvest festival service on 1st October. We continue our involvement with refugee support.

At the end of September, together with Susan LeQuerne and our Childrens' Worker Wilf Merttens, I attended a special meeting of Churches Together in Hampstead, to discuss the group's sponsorship bid. That meeting was packed with representatives of churches in the area, including a number involved in the Parish Church's bid. Wilf and Ewan were both involved in a joint launch event (Welcoming the Stranger) at Hampstead Parish Church on 13th October. The event was extremely moving, featuring individual refugee testimonies as well as music and speeches of support (including from our local M.P. and a representative of the Archbishop of Canterbury): it ended with a very welcome feast of falafels!

Our service on 5th November welcomed back Merit, one of the singers at Welcoming the Stranger, who enriched our worship with songs from the Syrian Liturgy, accompanied by a traditional instrument called a qanun.

Later that afternoon, as previously at this time of year, in recognition of All Souls, Ewan offered a contemplative service for the bereaved.

Some of you may have noticed (surely not!) that this year is the 500th Anniversary of the Reformation (or at least of the 'posting' of Martin Luther's 95 Theses). I have a bit of an interest in this area and have attended a couple of events: a meeting of the Christian Study Group (at Hampstead Parish Church on 25 October) on Archbishop Cranmer and (with Edward Humphreys), the Annual Meeting and Lecture of the fearsomely entitled Protestant Dissenting Deputies.

SECRETARY'S REPORT

Elsewhere in this newsletter I have provided an account of the lecture, which this year, was by The Revd. Dr John Bradbury, Minister of Emmanuel United Reformed Church and former Vice Principal of Westminster College Cambridge and entitled, Luther's revolution- then and now. The Deputies are really not at all fearsome. The body, which is comprised of ministers and elected lay people, was established in 1732 to fight for the removal of restrictions excluding Protestant non-conformists from many areas of public life. Representing churches across the country, the Deputies have a long history of achievement in support of free speech and civil rights and serve to keep alive their historic right of direct approach to the Monarch. The current Secretary of the Group is also the General Secretary of the Free Churches Group, a network of 24 national churches in the Non-Conformist, Evangelical and Pentecostal traditions, providing healthcare and prison chaplaincy services and education support. The late Godfray LeQuesne was for many years Chairman of the Deputies, presiding over the Annual Meeting and Lecture.

Finally, at the time of writing, we are looking forward to a rich program of events and services for Advent and Christmas. Full details are on the church website or you can contact me at t.thom@hotmail.co.uk for further information.

Have a lovely Christmas,

Theresa
